

MORMON TEMPLE, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH

O. Maria S/C - USNR

On July 29, 1847, Salt Lake City was founded by Mormons seeking sanctuary from a world unfriendly to their faith. It is now one of the most cosmopolitan cities of the nation. Here and there, traces of the early influences remain and, as in the case of Temple Square, the permanent monuments of the pioneers endure alongside the teeming industry and commerce that marks the city of today.

Dear Mary Alice,

I'm having a lovely trip out west, it sure is grand, mountains, bluffs, rocks + now we're crossing the Great Salt Lake. Just like you see in the movies, only more beautiful.

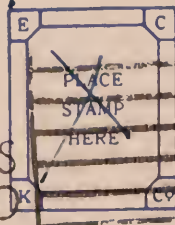

How are you doing. Regards, Alice
